Members of the World Science Fiction Society

Dear Society Members,

I am especially gratified to extend my unreserved support of Bidding Committee for Worldcon Nippon to host your 2007 World Science Fiction Convention.

I am delighted to guarantee that bringing your Congress to Japan will be an unforgettable experience for you and those who join you. Quite simply, Japan is unparalleled in its uniqueness as a nation and as a venue. I am sure you are aware that Japan has successfully hosted an extensive number of internationally significant conventions and offers one of the world's most advanced infrastructures for international gatherings. I am also confident that you will thoroughly enjoy the advantages of our on-time transportation and exemplary public safety, immaculate service and cleanliness, as well as our renowned friendliness and honesty. Japan is gifted with so many dynamic and exciting travel destinations and is unmatched in its cultural attractions, both ancient and modern, which will certainly highlight your important event.

As President of Japan National Tourist Organization, I am quite positive that your holding the 65th World Science Fiction Convention in Japan will ensure its resounding and memorable success. May I close by cordially encouraging you to select Japan as the site of your coming Congress. I look forward to hearing your hopefully favorable reply and to the exceptional pleasure of warmly welcoming you and your delegation to Japan in 2007.

Yours very sincerely,

Hideaki Mukaiyama

President

Japan National Tourist Organization
